

LEADERSHIP CONFERENCES

School counselors have been asked to nominate students for various leadership conferences.

These conferences take place at various locations during the summer. If you think you might be interested in attending any of the following conferences, please see your counselor:

- Junior National Young Leaders Conference - (JrNYLC) - high achieving middle school students study about past leaders to learn how to become an effective leader in their school and community. (Washington D.C.)

- NYLSC: Lead Now - 6th – 9th grade students will learn and apply leadership and life skills; goal setting, decision making, project planning, communication, and conflict resolution.

- People to People Leadership Summit – Grades 5-11, scholastic merit, leadership potential, exemplary citizenship. www.PeopletoPeople.com/leadership